

Featured Speakers:

Friday, September 8th

Hummingbird Festival

September 8, 9, & 10

Strawberry Plains Audubon Center
Holly Springs MS • 662-252-1155
strawberryplains.audubon.org

	Special Programs	Wildlife Wonders	Ecology
10 am	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds		You Rescued a What?! Wildlife Rehab Andi Lehman & Wildlife , Mississippi Wildlife Rehabilitation
11 am	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies. Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South
12 pm	A Chickadees Guide to Gardening Doug Tallamy, Dept. of Entomology & Ecology, Univ. of Delaware	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar	MS Wildlife: Survival of the Fittest Mississippi Natural Science Museum
1 pm	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson	Good Ole, Down-Home Mississippi Snakes Terry Vandeventer, Herpetologist, Living Reptile Museum	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds
2 pm	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies. Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South
3 pm	Making Insects: A Guide to Restoring the Little Things That Run the World Doug Tallamy, Dept. of Entomology & Ecology, Univ. of Delaware	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson, Partners of NeoTropical Bird Conservation
4 pm	The Wonder of Hummingbirds Heather Gallagher, Environmental Educator, Warner Park Nature Center	Good Ole, Down-Home Mississippi Snakes Terry Vandeventer, Herpetologist, Living Reptile Museum

Featured Speakers:
Saturday, September 9th

Hummingbird Festival
September 8, 9, & 10

Strawberry Plains Audubon Center
Holly Springs MS • 662-252-1155
strawberryplains.audubon.org

	Special Programs	Wildlife Wonders	Ecology
10 am	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds	MS Wildlife: Survival of the Fittest Mississippi Natural Science Museum	You Rescued a What?! Wildlife Rehab Andi Lehman & Wildlife, Mississippi Wildlife Rehabilitation
11 am	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies, Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South
12 pm	A Chickadees Guide to Gardening Doug Tallamy, Dept. of Entomology & Ecology, Univ. of Delaware	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar	MS Wildlife: Survival of the Fittest Mississippi Natural Science Museum
1 pm	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson, Partners of NeoTropical Bird Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds
2 pm	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies, Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson, Partners of NeoTropical Bird Conservation
3 pm	Making Insects: A Guide to Restoring the Little Things That Run the World Doug Tallamy, Dept. of Entomology & Ecology, Univ. of Delaware	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar
4 pm	The Wonder of Hummingbirds Heather Gallagher, Environmental Educator, Warner Park Nature Center

Hummingbird Festival

September 8, 9, & 10

Strawberry Plains Audubon Center
Holly Springs MS • 662-252-1155
strawberryplains.audubon.org

Featured Speakers:

Sunday, September 10th

	Special Programs	Wildlife Wonders	Ecology
10 am	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History		You Rescued a What?! Wildlife Rehab Andi Lehman & Wildlife , Mississippi Wildlife Rehabilitation
11 am	Making Insects: A Guide to Restoring the Little Things That Run the World Doug Tallamy, Dept. of Entomology & Ecology, Univ. of Delaware	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies. Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South
12 pm	Hummingbirds: From Your Backyard to the Neotropics - And Back Bill Hilton, Jr., Hill Pond Center for Piedmont Natural History	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar	MS Wildlife: Survival of the Fittest Mississippi Natural Science Museum
1 pm	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson	Good Ole, Down-Home Mississippi Snakes Terry Vandeventer, Herpetologist, Living Reptile Museum	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds
2 pm	The Wonder of Hummingbirds Heather Gallagher, Environmental Educator, Warner Park Nature Center	Batman, Bananas and Bugs Rob Mies. Director, Organization for Bat Conservation	Animals Important to Humanity Bob Tarter, Natural History Education Company of the Mid-South
3 pm	Plant It and They Will Come Tod Winston, National Audubon Society, Plants for Birds	Birds of Prey John Stokes & Dale Kernahan, Wings to Soar	Working Lands for Wildlife: Private-Public Partnering for Forest Birds Mike & Laura Jackson, Partners of NeoTropical Bird Conservation
4 pm	MS Wildlife: See Them Live! Mississippi Natural Science Museum	Good Ole, Down-Home Mississippi Snakes Terry Vandeventer, Herpetologist, Living Reptile Museum	